

THE WEATHER
Boston and vicinity. Unsettled, probably rain late tonight and tomorrow. Moderate southeast to southwest winds. High 54, low 48. Wind 10 to 20 m. p. m. Temperatures still about maximum. At noon, minimum, 43 at 4 p. m., average 48.5. Temperature at noon, 43. Light air velocity at 10 p. m.

BOSTON AMERICAN

FINAL EDITION
EXTRA

VOL. 15—No. 186
BOSTON, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1918.
ONE CENT

ITALIANS DRIVE AUSTRIAS AT PIAVE RIVER G. C. P., APPEAL BY WILSON

PRESIDENT ASKS FOR SUPPORT

By International News Service.
Washington, Oct. 25.—President Wilson today appealed to the people of the United States to return a Democratic majority to both the Senate and the House at the coming election. The President declared that the election of a Republican majority of either the Senate or the House unquestionably would be interpreted abroad as a repudiation of his leadership.

LYNN ELECTRIC WORKERS WIN ALL DEMANDS

A sweeping victory for the 14,000 employees of the Lynn General Electric Company is contained in the announcement today by the National War Labor Board that all of the demands of the employees struck on July 15 have been granted.

President's Appeal for a Democratic Congress

Washington, Oct. 25.—The text of the President's communication to the voters of America is as follows:
My Fellow Countrymen: The Congressional elections are at hand. They occur in the most critical period of our country's history. I earnestly beg that you will express yourselves unmistakably to that effect by returning a Democratic majority to both the Senate and the House of Representatives.
I am your servant and will accept your judgment without cavil, but my power to administer the government will be seriously impaired should your judgment be adverse, and I must frankly tell you so because my political life depends upon your verdict.
No scruple of taste must in grim times like these be allowed to stand in the way of speaking the plain truth.
A UNITED LEADERSHIP.
I have no thought of suggesting that any political party is paramount in the matter of patriotism. I feel too keenly the sacrifices which have been made in this way by all our citizens, irrespective of party affiliation, to harbor such an idea. I mean only that the difficulties and delicate of our present task are of a sort that make it imperative that the nation should have its undivided support to the government under a united leadership, and that a Republican Congress would divide the leadership.
The leaders of the minority in the present Congress have unquestionably been pro-war, but they have been anti-administration. At almost every turn, since we entered the war, they have sought to take the conduct of the war out of my hands and put it under the control of instrumentalities of their own making. It is no time either for divided command or for divided leadership. In civil action as it is in the field of battle, if the control of the House and Senate should be taken away from the President, in power an opposing majority would assume control of legislation and oblige all action to be taken against my will.

U. S. PEACE BOARD IN EUROPE

Colonel House and Party Prepared to Act on Developments; Now in Paris.
By JOHN EDWIN NEVIN, International News Service Staff Correspondent.
Washington, Oct. 25.—President Wilson today has his own personal representatives in Europe. He is prepared for anything that may happen in connection with peace developments affecting the Central Powers.
This was officially admitted following the announcement by the State Department that an American mission had landed safely in France and was now in Paris.
MEMBERS OF BOARD.
The mission is made up as follows: Colonel E. M. House, President Wilson's personal representative; General Tasker H. Bliss, representing the United States army; Admiral William D. Bennett, representing the United States navy; Joseph C. Grew, United States ambassador in London.
Continued on Page 3, Column 1.

U. S. Sailors and Big Navy Guns Aid French Army

Paris, Oct. 25.—Huge American naval guns are being used to clear the way for a renewal of the French advance between the Oise and the Meuse rivers, it was reported today.

BRITISH ONLY A MILE FROM LANDRECIES

By International News Service.
London, Oct. 25 (11:10 p. m.).—The British have captured Ghinne, Durbie and Burdon in the region of Flanders.

FROTHINGHAM WILL ENTER THE ARMY

Louis A. Frothingham resigned today from the Board of Trustees of the Boston Elevated Railway, of which he was chairman, and from the Legal Advisory Board of Draft Division No. 41, of which he was also chairman, in order to accept a commission in the United States Army. His resignation was accepted by Governor McCall.

PIAVE RIVER CROSSED IN NEW OFFENSIVE

London, Oct. 25 (2:30 p. m.).—Correspondents on the Italian battlefield, in commenting upon the new drive against the Austro-Hungarians, hint at possible developments, which, taken in connection with the revolts at Fiume and Prague, may likely mean the final blow to eliminate Austria from the war.

MUTINEERS SEIZE CITY OF FIUME

Hungarian Soldiers Revolt; Riots Reported in Berlin and Essen.
Basle, Switzerland, Oct. 25.—Croatian infantry, attached to the Austro-Hungarian army, has revolted and seized the city of Fiume, said a dispatch from an Austrian source today.

ITALIANS DRIVE AUSTRIAS AT PIAVE RIVER

The Italian assault was launched in the mountain zone near Monte Grappa, and important gains of territory were made. The Italians have crossed the Piave river, said a Central News dispatch from Rome. The attackers advanced as far as the Orme River, capturing Monte Solarolo and part of Monte Prassellan and Monte Perica. Islands in the Piave River were occupied, and Di Padoopololi and Maggiora were occupied.

EXTRA! EXTRA!

DEMAND IN BERLIN THAT KAISER QUIT.
London, Oct. 25.—The Reichstag building in Berlin was the centre of a remarkable peace demonstration, says a dispatch from Amsterdam. An immense mob gathered before the building and demanded the abdication of the Kaiser and the establishment of a republic. Karl Liebknecht, Socialism leader recently released from prison, was given a great ovation when he appeared in the throng.

Embassador Morgenthau's Story of German Plots

U. S. Envoy Shows How Germany Forced Turkey to Enter War.
Published by special arrangement with the McClure Newspaper Syndicate. Copyright 1918 by Doubleday, Page & Co. All rights reserved. Copyright in Great Britain, Canada and Australia. All rights reserved for France, Belgium, Holland, Italy, Spain, Greece and the Scandinavian countries.

CHAPTER XI.

All the Embassies on Nerves.

But we were all in a highly nervous state, because we knew that Germany was working hard to produce a casus belli. Suchon frequently sent the Goeben and the Breslau to manoeuvre in the Black Sea, hoping that the Russian fleet would attack. There were several pending situations that might end in war. Turkish and Russian troops were having occasional skirmishes on the Persian and Caucasian frontiers.

REPORTS ESSENTIAL TO BRING PEACE

Taken by Germany at Treaty of Frankfurt, Ending Franco-Prussian War

"No peace is possible without the return of Alsace and Lorraine to France."

President Poincaré of France spoke as above while addressing an allied audience last Tuesday at Lille, where there are many refugees from Alsace-Lorraine.

In his famous "Fourteen Points" peace message of January 8, President Wilson scheduled Point 8 thus:

"All French territory to be freed and restored and reparation for the taking of Alsace-Lorraine."

"Reparation," in the French mind, will mean nothing less than the restoration to France of the 5,000 square miles which were ceded to Germany as part of the price of French defeat in the Franco-Prussian war.

The operation was performed at the peace of Frankfurt on May 10, 1871. Nearly a half-century has failed to heal the wound to France, so matter how Germany has striven by every means at her command to Toulon in the severed territory.

When General Foch's American troops smashed the St. Mihiel salient and carried the battle line to the Vosges plain until now it rests at Metz, less than a dozen miles from Metz itself, the French nation was left with tremendous joy.

BRINGS JOY TO FRANCE.

This joy was due not only to the ground gained and the restoration to France of the 5,000 square miles, but also to the very moment that an advance had been made towards Metz, even though a fresh attack upon that superb stronghold was not in the air.

The present battle line south from Toul to Metz, however, is about half the distance from the battle line inside the French frontier. Then it dips to a course more due south and runs inside the Alsace plain at an average distance of seven to eight miles east of the frontier.

Alsace-Lorraine, after being taken by Germany, was made one of the divisions of the German empire. It was designated as a "Reichsland," an imperial territory, a province governed under the direction of the Reichsgovernment. It has a representation of three votes in the Bundesrat, Federal Council, and of fifteen members in the Reichstag, or Diet of the realm.

AREA OF PROVINCES.

The territorial area of the Reichsland is made up of three parts: Alsace, 2,500 square miles; Lorraine, 2,400 square miles. The total area of square miles, therefore, makes the province about as large as the combined areas of Rhode Island and Connecticut.

The province is bounded by Luxembourg to the north, the Rhine to the east, by Switzerland and France to the south, and by the Moselle to the west.

Alsace, the southern half, lies along a narrow alluvial plain running north and south between the Vosges Mountains and the Rhine. Lorraine is a hilly plateau sloping upward to the Alsatian plain.

The soil is generally fertile, producing grain, wine and other crops. Iron is the chief mineral asset of the province. Western Lorraine is richly endowed with the largest deposit of iron ore in all Europe. The district has two-twentieths of the total iron resources of the German Empire.

THICKLY POPULATED.

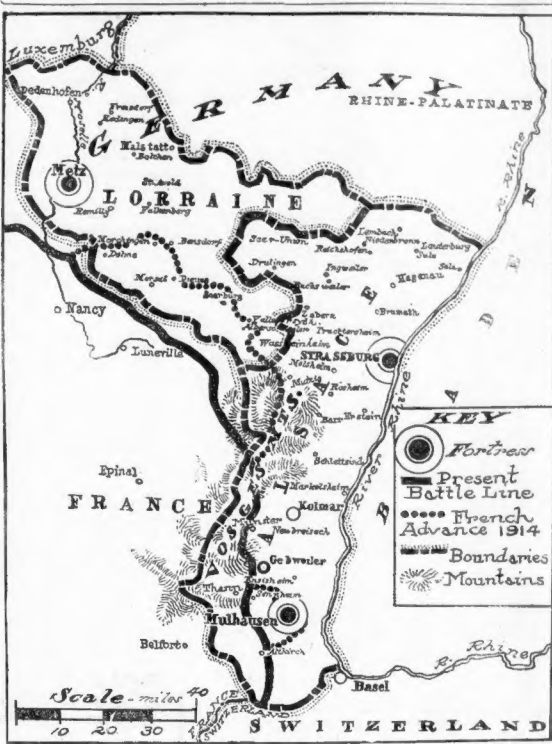

The population of Alsace-Lorraine in 1910 was 1,874,014, averaging 100 persons to the square mile. Alsace-Lorraine was a little better than the average of the German Empire.

The German method of territorial administration in Alsace-Lorraine is summed up in the following paragraph from the German Nationality Law of 1913:

"All the brutality which attends misapprehensions of efficiency among petty officials was given free rein in the process of replacing French by German officials. A stroke of the pen April 14, 1871, suppressed teaching of French in the primary schools of the annexed territory. In other educational establishments the study of the language was relegated to the second minor course."

It is also interesting to note how German management saw to it that the annexed province was given plenty of "Made in Germany" school equipment.

ALSACE-LORRAINE, TERRITORY WHICH THE FRENCH ARE FIGHTING TO REDEEM

When the Holy Roman Empire of Charlemagne fell asunder in the fifth decade of the ninth century, northern Italy and an irregular strip of land stretching from the Alps to the German Ocean went to his eldest grandson, Hlothar, who assumed the imperial title. There was neither unity of race nor language in this ill-assorted kingdom, and it soon became merged with the eastern or Germanic third of the empire of Charles the Great. But before becoming so incorporated, it acquired the name of Lotharingia, after its lord and master, the second Hlothar. The modern Lorraine remains to remind us of this once vaster body of contention between the Franks of the West and their brothers of the East. Lorraine and Alsace changed hands many times within the following centuries, at one time belonging to the Dukes of Burgundy, who owed fealty to both the Kings of France and the Emperors of Germany, and paid little heed to either. The districts, or the power of the Empire waned, were gradually incorporated by France. Part was acquired at the Peace of Westphalia, in 1648; more came through the Treaty of Ryswick, forty-nine years later, and some outlying districts were secured in 1769 by the armies of the French Republic. Part of Alsace still remains to France, but the northeastern stretch of the old lucky and Alsace has been German since 1871.

When the Holy Roman Empire of Charlemagne fell asunder in the fifth decade of the ninth century, northern Italy and an irregular strip of land stretching from the Alps to the German Ocean went to his eldest grandson, Hlothar, who assumed the imperial title. There was neither unity of race nor language in this ill-assorted kingdom, and it soon became merged with the eastern or Germanic third of the empire of Charles the Great. But before becoming so incorporated, it acquired the name of Lotharingia, after its lord and master, the second Hlothar. The modern Lorraine remains to remind us of this once vaster body of contention between the Franks of the West and their brothers of the East. Lorraine and Alsace changed hands many times within the following centuries, at one time belonging to the Dukes of Burgundy, who owed fealty to both the Kings of France and the Emperors of Germany, and paid little heed to either. The districts, or the power of the Empire waned, were gradually incorporated by France. Part was acquired at the Peace of Westphalia, in 1648; more came through the Treaty of Ryswick, forty-nine years later, and some outlying districts were secured in 1769 by the armies of the French Republic. Part of Alsace still remains to France, but the northeastern stretch of the old lucky and Alsace has been German since 1871.

When the Holy Roman Empire of Charlemagne fell asunder in the fifth decade of the ninth century, northern Italy and an irregular strip of land stretching from the Alps to the German Ocean went to his eldest grandson, Hlothar, who assumed the imperial title. There was neither unity of race nor language in this ill-assorted kingdom, and it soon became merged with the eastern or Germanic third of the empire of Charles the Great. But before becoming so incorporated, it acquired the name of Lotharingia, after its lord and master, the second Hlothar. The modern Lorraine remains to remind us of this once vaster body of contention between the Franks of the West and their brothers of the East. Lorraine and Alsace changed hands many times within the following centuries, at one time belonging to the Dukes of Burgundy, who owed fealty to both the Kings of France and the Emperors of Germany, and paid little heed to either. The districts, or the power of the Empire waned, were gradually incorporated by France. Part was acquired at the Peace of Westphalia, in 1648; more came through the Treaty of Ryswick, forty-nine years later, and some outlying districts were secured in 1769 by the armies of the French Republic. Part of Alsace still remains to France, but the northeastern stretch of the old lucky and Alsace has been German since 1871.

When the Holy Roman Empire of Charlemagne fell asunder in the fifth decade of the ninth century, northern Italy and an irregular strip of land stretching from the Alps to the German Ocean went to his eldest grandson, Hlothar, who assumed the imperial title. There was neither unity of race nor language in this ill-assorted kingdom, and it soon became merged with the eastern or Germanic third of the empire of Charles the Great. But before becoming so incorporated, it acquired the name of Lotharingia, after its lord and master, the second Hlothar. The modern Lorraine remains to remind us of this once vaster body of contention between the Franks of the West and their brothers of the East. Lorraine and Alsace changed hands many times within the following centuries, at one time belonging to the Dukes of Burgundy, who owed fealty to both the Kings of France and the Emperors of Germany, and paid little heed to either. The districts, or the power of the Empire waned, were gradually incorporated by France. Part was acquired at the Peace of Westphalia, in 1648; more came through the Treaty of Ryswick, forty-nine years later, and some outlying districts were secured in 1769 by the armies of the French Republic. Part of Alsace still remains to France, but the northeastern stretch of the old lucky and Alsace has been German since 1871.

When the Holy Roman Empire of Charlemagne fell asunder in the fifth decade of the ninth century, northern Italy and an irregular strip of land stretching from the Alps to the German Ocean went to his eldest grandson, Hlothar, who assumed the imperial title. There was neither unity of race nor language in this ill-assorted kingdom, and it soon became merged with the eastern or Germanic third of the empire of Charles the Great. But before becoming so incorporated, it acquired the name of Lotharingia, after its lord and master, the second Hlothar. The modern Lorraine remains to remind us of this once vaster body of contention between the Franks of the West and their brothers of the East. Lorraine and Alsace changed hands many times within the following centuries, at one time belonging to the Dukes of Burgundy, who owed fealty to both the Kings of France and the Emperors of Germany, and paid little heed to either. The districts, or the power of the Empire waned, were gradually incorporated by France. Part was acquired at the Peace of Westphalia, in 1648; more came through the Treaty of Ryswick, forty-nine years later, and some outlying districts were secured in 1769 by the armies of the French Republic. Part of Alsace still remains to France, but the northeastern stretch of the old lucky and Alsace has been German since 1871.

When the Holy Roman Empire of Charlemagne fell asunder in the fifth decade of the ninth century, northern Italy and an irregular strip of land stretching from the Alps to the German Ocean went to his eldest grandson, Hlothar, who assumed the imperial title. There was neither unity of race nor language in this ill-assorted kingdom, and it soon became merged with the eastern or Germanic third of the empire of Charles the Great. But before becoming so incorporated, it acquired the name of Lotharingia, after its lord and master, the second Hlothar. The modern Lorraine remains to remind us of this once vaster body of contention between the Franks of the West and their brothers of the East. Lorraine and Alsace changed hands many times within the following centuries, at one time belonging to the Dukes of Burgundy, who owed fealty to both the Kings of France and the Emperors of Germany, and paid little heed to either. The districts, or the power of the Empire waned, were gradually incorporated by France. Part was acquired at the Peace of Westphalia, in 1648; more came through the Treaty of Ryswick, forty-nine years later, and some outlying districts were secured in 1769 by the armies of the French Republic. Part of Alsace still remains to France, but the northeastern stretch of the old lucky and Alsace has been German since 1871.

When the Holy Roman Empire of Charlemagne fell asunder in the fifth decade of the ninth century, northern Italy and an irregular strip of land stretching from the Alps to the German Ocean went to his eldest grandson, Hlothar, who assumed the imperial title. There was neither unity of race nor language in this ill-assorted kingdom, and it soon became merged with the eastern or Germanic third of the empire of Charles the Great. But before becoming so incorporated, it acquired the name of Lotharingia, after its lord and master, the second Hlothar. The modern Lorraine remains to remind us of this once vaster body of contention between the Franks of the West and their brothers of the East. Lorraine and Alsace changed hands many times within the following centuries, at one time belonging to the Dukes of Burgundy, who owed fealty to both the Kings of France and the Emperors of Germany, and paid little heed to either. The districts, or the power of the Empire waned, were gradually incorporated by France. Part was acquired at the Peace of Westphalia, in 1648; more came through the Treaty of Ryswick, forty-nine years later, and some outlying districts were secured in 1769 by the armies of the French Republic. Part of Alsace still remains to France, but the northeastern stretch of the old lucky and Alsace has been German since 1871.

When the Holy Roman Empire of Charlemagne fell asunder in the fifth decade of the ninth century, northern Italy and an irregular strip of land stretching from the Alps to the German Ocean went to his eldest grandson, Hlothar, who assumed the imperial title. There was neither unity of race nor language in this ill-assorted kingdom, and it soon became merged with the eastern or Germanic third of the empire of Charles the Great. But before becoming so incorporated, it acquired the name of Lotharingia, after its lord and master, the second Hlothar. The modern Lorraine remains to remind us of this once vaster body of contention between the Franks of the West and their brothers of the East. Lorraine and Alsace changed hands many times within the following centuries, at one time belonging to the Dukes of Burgundy, who owed fealty to both the Kings of France and the Emperors of Germany, and paid little heed to either. The districts, or the power of the Empire waned, were gradually incorporated by France. Part was acquired at the Peace of Westphalia, in 1648; more came through the Treaty of Ryswick, forty-nine years later, and some outlying districts were secured in 1769 by the armies of the French Republic. Part of Alsace still remains to France, but the northeastern stretch of the old lucky and Alsace has been German since 1871.

When the Holy Roman Empire of Charlemagne fell asunder in the fifth decade of the ninth century, northern Italy and an irregular strip of land stretching from the Alps to the German Ocean went to his eldest grandson, Hlothar, who assumed the imperial title. There was neither unity of race nor language in this ill-assorted kingdom, and it soon became merged with the eastern or Germanic third of the empire of Charles the Great. But before becoming so incorporated, it acquired the name of Lotharingia, after its lord and master, the second Hlothar. The modern Lorraine remains to remind us of this once vaster body of contention between the Franks of the West and their brothers of the East. Lorraine and Alsace changed hands many times within the following centuries, at one time belonging to the Dukes of Burgundy, who owed fealty to both the Kings of France and the Emperors of Germany, and paid little heed to either. The districts, or the power of the Empire waned, were gradually incorporated by France. Part was acquired at the Peace of Westphalia, in 1648; more came through the Treaty of Ryswick, forty-nine years later, and some outlying districts were secured in 1769 by the armies of the French Republic. Part of Alsace still remains to France, but the northeastern stretch of the old lucky and Alsace has been German since 1871.

When the Holy Roman Empire of Charlemagne fell asunder in the fifth decade of the ninth century, northern Italy and an irregular strip of land stretching from the Alps to the German Ocean went to his eldest grandson, Hlothar, who assumed the imperial title. There was neither unity of race nor language in this ill-assorted kingdom, and it soon became merged with the eastern or Germanic third of the empire of Charles the Great. But before becoming so incorporated, it acquired the name of Lotharingia, after its lord and master, the second Hlothar. The modern Lorraine remains to remind us of this once vaster body of contention between the Franks of the West and their brothers of the East. Lorraine and Alsace changed hands many times within the following centuries, at one time belonging to the Dukes of Burgundy, who owed fealty to both the Kings of France and the Emperors of Germany, and paid little heed to either. The districts, or the power of the Empire waned, were gradually incorporated by France. Part was acquired at the Peace of Westphalia, in 1648; more came through the Treaty of Ryswick, forty-nine years later, and some outlying districts were secured in 1769 by the armies of the French Republic. Part of Alsace still remains to France, but the northeastern stretch of the old lucky and Alsace has been German since 1871.

When the Holy Roman Empire of Charlemagne fell asunder in the fifth decade of the ninth century, northern Italy and an irregular strip of land stretching from the Alps to the German Ocean went to his eldest grandson, Hlothar, who assumed the imperial title. There was neither unity of race nor language in this ill-assorted kingdom, and it soon became merged with the eastern or Germanic third of the empire of Charles the Great. But before becoming so incorporated, it acquired the name of Lotharingia, after its lord and master, the second Hlothar. The modern Lorraine remains to remind us of this once vaster body of contention between the Franks of the West and their brothers of the East. Lorraine and Alsace changed hands many times within the following centuries, at one time belonging to the Dukes of Burgundy, who owed fealty to both the Kings of France and the Emperors of Germany, and paid little heed to either. The districts, or the power of the Empire waned, were gradually incorporated by France. Part was acquired at the Peace of Westphalia, in 1648; more came through the Treaty of Ryswick, forty-nine years later, and some outlying districts were secured in 1769 by the armies of the French Republic. Part of Alsace still remains to France, but the northeastern stretch of the old lucky and Alsace has been German since 1871.

When the Holy Roman Empire of Charlemagne fell asunder in the fifth decade of the ninth century, northern Italy and an irregular strip of land stretching from the Alps to the German Ocean went to his eldest grandson, Hlothar, who assumed the imperial title. There was neither unity of race nor language in this ill-assorted kingdom, and it soon became merged with the eastern or Germanic third of the empire of Charles the Great. But before becoming so incorporated, it acquired the name of Lotharingia, after its lord and master, the second Hlothar. The modern Lorraine remains to remind us of this once vaster body of contention between the Franks of the West and their brothers of the East. Lorraine and Alsace changed hands many times within the following centuries, at one time belonging to the Dukes of Burgundy, who owed fealty to both the Kings of France and the Emperors of Germany, and paid little heed to either. The districts, or the power of the Empire waned, were gradually incorporated by France. Part was acquired at the Peace of Westphalia, in 1648; more came through the Treaty of Ryswick, forty-nine years later, and some outlying districts were secured in 1769 by the armies of the French Republic. Part of Alsace still remains to France, but the northeastern stretch of the old lucky and Alsace has been German since 1871.

When the Holy Roman Empire of Charlemagne fell asunder in the fifth decade of the ninth century, northern Italy and an irregular strip of land stretching from the Alps to the German Ocean went to his eldest grandson, Hlothar, who assumed the imperial title. There was neither unity of race nor language in this ill-assorted kingdom, and it soon became merged with the eastern or Germanic third of the empire of Charles the Great. But before becoming so incorporated, it acquired the name of Lotharingia, after its lord and master, the second Hlothar. The modern Lorraine remains to remind us of this once vaster body of contention between the Franks of the West and their brothers of the East. Lorraine and Alsace changed hands many times within the following centuries, at one time belonging to the Dukes of Burgundy, who owed fealty to both the Kings of France and the Emperors of Germany, and paid little heed to either. The districts, or the power of the Empire waned, were gradually incorporated by France. Part was acquired at the Peace of Westphalia, in 1648; more came through the Treaty of Ryswick, forty-nine years later, and some outlying districts were secured in 1769 by the armies of the French Republic. Part of Alsace still remains to France, but the northeastern stretch of the old lucky and Alsace has been German since 1871.

VENGEANCE FOR FORMER WARE BOOTBLACK

Prussian Prisoner Forced to Do the Shining by Balkan War Hero

By NEWTON C. PARKER.

With the American Army North of the Vesuvius, Oct. 25—(Continued from page 1.)

After a year of war, the Prussian prisoner was forced to do the shining by Balkan War Hero.

With the American Army North of the Vesuvius, Oct. 25—(Continued from page 1.)

After a year of war, the Prussian prisoner was forced to do the shining by Balkan War Hero.

With the American Army North of the Vesuvius, Oct. 25—(Continued from page 1.)

After a year of war, the Prussian prisoner was forced to do the shining by Balkan War Hero.

With the American Army North of the Vesuvius, Oct. 25—(Continued from page 1.)

After a year of war, the Prussian prisoner was forced to do the shining by Balkan War Hero.

With the American Army North of the Vesuvius, Oct. 25—(Continued from page 1.)

After a year of war, the Prussian prisoner was forced to do the shining by Balkan War Hero.

With the American Army North of the Vesuvius, Oct. 25—(Continued from page 1.)

After a year of war, the Prussian prisoner was forced to do the shining by Balkan War Hero.

With the American Army North of the Vesuvius, Oct. 25—(Continued from page 1.)

After a year of war, the Prussian prisoner was forced to do the shining by Balkan War Hero.

With the American Army North of the Vesuvius, Oct. 25—(Continued from page 1.)

After a year of war, the Prussian prisoner was forced to do the shining by Balkan War Hero.

With the American Army North of the Vesuvius, Oct. 25—(Continued from page 1.)

After a year of war, the Prussian prisoner was forced to do the shining by Balkan War Hero.

With the American Army North of the Vesuvius, Oct. 25—(Continued from page 1.)

After a year of war, the Prussian prisoner was forced to do the shining by Balkan War Hero.

With the American Army North of the Vesuvius, Oct. 25—(Continued from page 1.)

After a year of war, the Prussian prisoner was forced to do the shining by Balkan War Hero.

With the American Army North of the Vesuvius, Oct. 25—(Continued from page 1.)

After a year of war, the Prussian prisoner was forced to do the shining by Balkan War Hero.

With the American Army North of the Vesuvius, Oct. 25—(Continued from page 1.)

FRUIT PRICES DROP AFTER INVESTIGATION

New York, Oct. 25.—Shortly after the announcement of an investigation by the Federal Food Board of alleged manipulation of prices of fruit, prices of the fruit dropped from five to four cents per box at public markets.

MOTOR CORPS INSIGNIA

WINGED HAT ON WHEEL

These Specials for Saturday

Washington, Corner Bedford Street

First Reduction Sale

At the New Bedell Fashion Shop

Washington, Corner Bedford Street

First Reduction Sale of Suits Heretofore $35 & $40

$25

Buy Saturday and Save

Smart, well-groomed effects—in Tailors, demi-tailored, trimmed and sport models, copied from most successful new productions. A fastidious and distinguished assortment—unimpeachably correct and trim—to be offered tomorrow only at this very wonderful price.

—Colors— Navy Blue, Dark Brown, Safe Grays, Burgundy

—Materials— Oxfords, Men's Wear Serges, Mixtures, Poplins, Cheviots, Tweeds

First Sale New Bedell Coats With Big Fur Collars

$29.75

Unsurpassed at $35 or $45

A great collection of smartest winter models, colors and materials! Stunning top-coats in swaggy belted styles, plaided backs—hundreds of ideas in collars, pockets, and belts. Luxuriously fur-trimmed or plain.

—Colors— Bion Brown, Taupe Gray, Russian Green

—Materials— Pom Poms, Velours, Broadcloths, Silk Plushes, Cheviots

Great Sale Georgette Blouses

Exhausting Fashion's Possibilities

$5

The City's Largest Assortment

Distinctively new round-neck effects, high collar tailored models with frills and jabots—collarless effects that button in back, with shimmering bead and embroidered motifs. Georgette, Crepe de Chine, Washable Satins, Striped Habutais.

First Reduction Sale Dresses Heretofore $30, $35 & $40

$19.75

Bargains in Refined Models

Tomorrow's your big opportunity—select one or two of these extraordinary smart Fall dresses. Brilliant variety of stunning Tailors, Broad-trimmed, long Waists, Panel, Tunic and Mandarin models. Season's foremost originals—very desirable.

—Colors— Navy Blue, Black, Light Grays, Castor

—Materials— Serges, Satins, Velvet & Satins, etc. No Charge for Alterations

Our corps of expert dress and tailors assure you a perfect tailored garment—and save you the usual $3 to $10 extra!

No Upishness About Sims-If in Doubt Ask Swinger

London, Oct. 25.—There's nothing to get up about Admiral Sims. Anybody who has joined the navy for the purpose of helping to kill the child killers looks good to him.

Bill Swinger, former International News Service telegraph operator, now a first-class wireless operator, was plodding wearily about the Grosvenor Gardens district trying to find somebody who could take United States and direct him to the headquarters, when a big man with a redish beard stopped him.

He talked United States and went found that Bill was humped. He lost. It isn't everybody who is directed about London by an Admiral, Commander-in-Chief of the United States Navy.

Bill is rather pleased to have his name in the papers. He is a little bit of a show-off.

Bill got Swinger's naval history. He is a first-class wireless operator, now a first-class wireless operator, was plodding wearily about the Grosvenor Gardens district trying to find somebody who could take United States and direct him to the headquarters, when a big man with a redish beard stopped him.

He talked United States and went found that Bill was humped. He lost. It isn't everybody who is directed about London by an Admiral, Commander-in-Chief of the United States Navy.

Bill is rather pleased to have his name in the papers. He is a little bit of a show-off.

Bill got Swinger's naval history. He is a first-class wireless operator, now a first-class wireless operator, was plodding wearily about the Grosvenor Gardens district trying to find somebody who could take United States and direct him to the headquarters, when a big man with a redish beard stopped him.

He talked United States and went found that Bill was humped. He lost. It isn't everybody who is directed about London by an Admiral, Commander-in-Chief of the United States Navy.

Bill is rather pleased to have his name in the papers. He is a little bit of a show-off.

Bill got Swinger's naval history. He is a first-class wireless operator, now a first-class wireless operator, was plodding wearily about the Grosvenor Gardens district trying to find somebody who could take United States and direct him to the headquarters, when a big man with a redish beard stopped him.

BUSINESS FALLS OFF IN STOCK MARKET

The volume of business in the stock market was much reduced today and prices were materially lower all through the list. After rallying from its low prices the market became less active.

United States Steel opened at 108, declined to 105 and rallied to 106, off 1/2. Bethlehem Steel dropped to 72, off 1/2, and rallied to 73, off 1/2. American Locomotive sold down to 52, then rallied to 53, off 1/2.

Automobile fell to 64, off 1/2. General Electric fell to 52, off 1/2. Western Union fell to 48, off 1/2. Southern Railway fell to 38, off 1/2. Northern Railway fell to 38, off 1/2. Southern Railway fell to 38, off 1/2.

Reading declined to 66, off 1/2. Marine fell to 119, off 1/2. Ohio Steel fell to 12, off 1/2. Industrial Alcohol fell to 4, off 1/2. United States Steel fell to 108, off 1/2. Bethlehem Steel fell to 72, off 1/2. American Locomotive fell to 52, off 1/2.

Automobile fell to 64, off 1/2. General Electric fell to 52, off 1/2. Western Union fell to 48, off 1/2. Southern Railway fell to 38, off 1/2. Northern Railway fell to 38, off 1/2. Southern Railway fell to 38, off 1/2.

Reading declined to 66, off 1/2. Marine fell to 119, off 1/2. Ohio Steel fell to 12, off 1/2. Industrial Alcohol fell to 4, off 1/2. United States Steel fell to 108, off 1/2. Bethlehem Steel fell to 72, off 1/2. American Locomotive fell to 52, off 1/2.

Automobile fell to 64, off 1/2. General Electric fell to 52, off 1/2. Western Union fell to 48, off 1/2. Southern Railway fell to 38, off 1/2. Northern Railway fell to 38, off 1/2. Southern Railway fell to 38, off 1/2.

Reading declined to 66, off 1/2. Marine fell to 119, off 1/2. Ohio Steel fell to 12, off 1/2. Industrial Alcohol fell to 4, off 1/2. United States Steel fell to 108, off 1/2. Bethlehem Steel fell to 72, off 1/2. American Locomotive fell to 52, off 1/2.

Automobile fell to 64, off 1/2. General Electric fell to 52, off 1/2. Western Union fell to 48, off 1/2. Southern Railway fell to 38, off 1/2. Northern Railway fell to 38, off 1/2. Southern Railway fell to 38, off 1/2.

Reading declined to 66, off 1/2. Marine fell to 119, off 1/2. Ohio Steel fell to 12, off 1/2. Industrial Alcohol fell to 4, off 1/2. United States Steel fell to 108, off 1/2. Bethlehem Steel fell to 72, off 1/2. American Locomotive fell to 52, off 1/2.

Automobile fell to 64, off 1/2. General Electric fell to 52, off 1/2. Western Union fell to 48, off 1/2. Southern Railway fell to 38, off 1/2. Northern Railway fell to 38, off 1/2. Southern Railway fell to 38, off 1/2.

INJURED BY FLYING CIDER OF MANHOLE

Miss Margaret McLean, seventeen-year-old daughter of a caddy at the Atlantic ocean station of the Westchester, Tuxedo, and the owner of a manhole was blown off by a flying cider of the manhole.

She was injured today when, as a result of a short circuit of a cable at the Atlantic ocean station of the Westchester, Tuxedo, and the owner of a manhole was blown off by a flying cider of the manhole.

She was injured today when, as a result of a short circuit of a cable at the Atlantic ocean station of the Westchester, Tuxedo, and the owner of a manhole was blown off by a flying cider of the manhole.

She was injured today when, as a result of a short circuit of

O'CONNELL AND LOMANEY CLASH

Hot Exchange of Invektive at Tague Hearing Before Ballot Board

Martin M. Lomaney and Joseph E. O'Connell today indulged in exchange of invective at the resumed Fitzgerald-Tague hearing before the Massachusetts Ballot Law Commission. Lomaney said that he had in his pocket "a paper that would send him (O'Connell) overboard in any court in the Commonwealth."

"You're a liar!" shouted O'Connell with considerable emphasis, repeating the remark twice over.

Lomaney had insisted on his right to appear as counsel for thirty-five or forty witnesses, summoned by the commission. The Ward 5 leader said that inasmuch as the hearing had brought out charges of fraud it was his desire that the matter be cleared up satisfactorily.

The commission then considered the question and while they were deliberating, Lomaney and O'Connell became embroiled in further argument. O'Connell accused the table at O'Connell. "I didn't call you a liar before this thing is over. I'll call you by your right name."

CALLS FOR ORDER. Meanwhile Chairman Cunningham was industrious with the gavel. He ordered Sergeant at Arms Pollock to preserve order. Mr. Pollock approached Lomaney and asked him to be quiet. Lomaney sat down at once.

"You took $200 from a man to get him out of the draft," Lomaney shouted at one point. "You're a scoundrel," O'Connell retorted. "There isn't a man living who can say that he can get me out and get away with it."

Shomer Albert arose and calmly asked the commission not to lose sight of the fact that he alone represents Fitzgerald. He stated that he had requested David Manowitz to assist him, and only Manowitz.

O'Connell then asked that it be made perfectly clear what persons at the table were appearing as counsel. "In order that I may know whether these attacks are coming from in front or behind me, I like to have my face toward the man I am fighting," he said.

Lomaney arose and, producing certain papers from his pocket, said: "I have power of attorney from many of these witnesses, who desire that I represent them."

Chairman Cunningham stated that it is, of course, a well-known rule of law that witnesses, as such, cannot be represented by counsel.

RULES FOR WITNESSES. Chairman Cunningham announced that the decision of the board was that each witness should be asked his name, his residence April 1, 1918, whether he was registered from that residence and whether he voted in the primary September 23.

Mr. O'Connell requested the board to ask also if the witness had his registration card. He thought it essential that the blue card be produced.

Mr. Lomaney declared this as unnecessary. Mr. O'Connell replied that the board ought not to limit itself to the questions named, for there might be need of other testimony for the identification of the witnesses.

"The board will not add to these questions," was the reply of Chairman Cunningham.

The chairman then called Orlando B. Corcoran, for whom special request was made for testifying first on account of press of business. Mr. O'Connell said that Lomaney had had his witnesses under his guidance for forty-eight hours and had insisted upon the right to cross-examine them.

Chairman Cunningham replied that the locality of the registration of the witnesses was before another tribunal. The single issue here was the identity of the person.

Corcoran was then sworn and testified that he lived at No. 48 Cusumery street, Hotel Lucerne, April 1; registered from there and voted at the primaries. O'Connell demanded the right to cross-examine, but Chairman Cunningham refused. Several other names were called, but no one answered.

MEDFORD BOY KILLED WHILE LEADING CHARGE. Lieutenant Richard M. Dwyer, son of the late Michael F. Dwyer, former Mayor of Medford, met his death while leading his company across a bridge in a charge on the Germans in the St. Mihiel drive, according to a letter received by his mother from another lieutenant in the same regiment. No official announcement of his death has been received from the War Department by Mrs. Dwyer.

Rides Sixty Miles at Night to Insure Game of Ball

Paris, Oct. 25.—To obtain baseball supplies for the soldiers in his brigade, the Rev. Father William Munster, of Pittsburgh, Pa., chaplain and athletic director of an artillery regiment, rode sixty miles on a motorcycle at night recently.

A divisional baseball championship was slated to be active when Father Munster discovered that the truck containing the balls, bats and other equipment was on the missing list.

As the division was going to a sector where it would be too busy for any baseball games for a while, Father Munster was determined that the championship should be settled. Without saying a word to any of the soldiers he jumped on the motorcycle and rode to a Knights of Columbus club six miles away, where he secured the equipment for the game.

Before the war Father Munster was at St. Mary's of the Mount Church, Pittsburgh.

WORCESTER TO ADD TO PARK WAR GARDENS

Worcester, Oct. 25.—War or no war, Worcester's park commission will continue its war garden plan in the public parks of the city next year. Arrangements are now under way for an enlarged program.

New soil at Elm Park will be broken next week divided into garden plots. Leonard C. Miley, supervisor of the farm bureau, estimates that in the 1200 acres of land there was $17,000 worth of crops raised this year. This work was done by 1,400 Worcester war gardeners.

GERMAN ALIEN FEMALES MUST OBEY ZONE RULES

United States Marshal John J. Mitchell has announced that hereafter he will enforce the rule relative to German alien females securing permits from his office to live, work in or by the barred zones in the various parts of the city and State.

Marshal Mitchell stated that during the recent grip epidemic this rule has not been enforced as strictly as it should be, but from now on Federal authorities will see to it that there is no further violation.

Knights of Columbus Thank American for War Aid

The following letter received by the AMERICAN today is explanatory: Knights of Columbus Committee on War Activities, 461 Fourth Avenue, New York City.

The Boston AMERICAN has been very generous to the Knights of Columbus in giving information as to what our organization is doing for the boys here and overseas. The Boston AMERICAN has also been generous in giving notice to all other organizations, and it deserves high praise for its patriotic cooperation with the government. Cordially yours,

WILLIAM J. MULLIGAN, Chairman of N. of C. War Activities.

COTTON SALES MUST BE IN NEW U. S. STANDARDS

Washington, Oct. 25.—In order to facilitate the control of the distribution of cotton, which has been undertaken by the government, all shippers of raw cotton in the United States will be required, beginning January 1, to make their sales contracts in terms of the official cotton standards of the United States. This announcement was made this afternoon by Charles J. Brand, chairman of the committee on cotton distribution of the War Industries Board.

FIRST LYNNFIELD MAN TO DIE IN THE SERVICE

Dying of pneumonia just as the transport which took him overseas was reaching the shores of France, Benjamin Louis Mitchell of Lynnfield Center was the first young man of that town to give his life in the service. Notification of his death was received today by his mother, Mrs. Benjamin Mitchell, a widow of 60, who survived also by a brother and two sisters. Young Mitchell was sent to the Heavy Artillery. He was twenty-two years old.

Harvard Savant Pays Tribute to Memory of Col. Shannon

Professor Joseph Warren of Harvard pays high tribute to Lieutenant Colonel James A. Shannon, who died in action in France. Colonel Shannon, attached to General Pershing's staff, insisted on getting an opportunity to see into action and only a few hours after taking command of a body of troops he was mortally wounded in a shell burst.

Professor Warren says of Lieutenant Colonel Shannon: "He was simple, alert, intelligent, straightforward and with firm and slight undercurrents ready to receive obedience. If it was his duty to do so, he would do it without any hesitancy. Many a young officer in France today is indebted to him for having as his idea of what an American should be."

Lieutenant Colonel Shannon, 34, was a graduate of Harvard and a member of the Harvard Club. He was a member of the Harvard Club and a member of the Harvard Club.

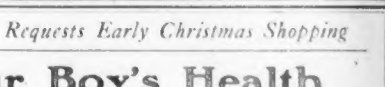

U. S. S. RHODE ISLAND HOLDS BALL TONIGHT

The U. S. S. Rhode Island ball will be held tonight at Hotel Somerset. The contest will start promptly at 8 o'clock and will be followed by the grand march at 10.

Strong, Forceful Men With Plenty of Iron In Their Blood—

These Are the Ones With the Power and Energy to Win

It is estimated that over 1,000,000 people annually in this country alone TAKE NUXATED IRON For Red Blood, Strength and Endurance

THE COUNCIL OF NATIONAL DEFENCE HAS REQUESTED EARLY CHRISTMAS SHOPPING

Jordan Marsh Company

Furniture of Character

Jordan Marsh Company

A Charming Adaptation Of a Choice Old Model

The simple style of ornamentation must commend itself to those who consider that decoration should be subservient to construction. It has all the qualities: dignified design so prized by those who delight in early English furniture, as well as construction that is unquestionably good. This 10-piece Brown Mahogany Suite (serving table not shown), $21.00.

Simplicity and Conservation Have Naturally Brought Forward the Colonial Braided Rugs

Made in Maine

A distinctive New England product originating here in Colonial days

We are showing a complete variety of very beautiful Hand Braided Rugs in the old-fashioned patterns—round and oval, in various sizes. These rugs are very attractive and add a touch of intimacy to the home.

- "Maria," 38-in.x51-in., 29-in.x47-in., 30-in.x50-in., 33-in.x54-in.13.50 to 16.00
- "Betsy," 41-in.x73-in.25.00
- 43-in.x75-in.27.00
- "Becky" (yellow), 32-in.x58-in.17.50
- 47-in.x79-in.33.50
- "Betsy" (crimson), 51-in.x89-in.38.00
- "Becky" (blue), 37-in.x60-in.20.00
- 32-in.x53-in.15.50 30-in.x54-in.14.50
- 44-in.x72-in.28.50
- "Mahala," 60-in. diameter.40.00
- "Nancy," 53-in.x88-in.42.00

The entire 5th floor of our new building is devoted to floor coverings. We carry the largest and most complete assortment in New England. Every manufacturer of note is represented here.

Rugs help to conserve fuel by keeping the cold out. All rugs are advancing in price every day. Now is a good time to buy.

Jordan Marsh Company

The Council of National Defence Requests Early Christmas Shopping

Conserve Your Boy's Health

A good warm Suit or Overcoat bought now is the essential thing. Cold weather is coming. See that your boy is prepared for it. Our Juvenile Section on the third floor is well stocked with reliable suits and overcoats of good sturdy materials; an abundance of unusual values.

Here are to be found some Suit specials that are sure to please mothers and the boys as well.

Tweeds, Cheviots, Worsted and Cassimeres in new smart models and patterns, designed to appeal to the boy who is proud of his appearance. Sizes 7 to 18 years.

7.50 to 25.00

Juvenile Suits in mixtures, corduroy and tweeds, sizes 3 to 10 years.

5.95 to 10.00

Suede Cloth Coats, cut army trench style, with deep collar, buckled belt, and fuzzy, woolly lining, army buttons. Sizes 8 to 18 years. 10.00

Long Warm Overcoats and Ulsters in New Styles and Patterns

Extra warm Winter Overcoats, a combination of Winter weight materials and careful tailoring. An unusual offering; the kind that will be hard to duplicate later on. Sizes 11 to 18 yrs.

14.75 to 30.00

Junior Overcoats, all colors in new patterns; sizes 2½ to 10 years.

8.75 to 22.00

Mackinaws

For years our output of these splendid coats has steadily increased, until today we can truthfully say our stock is the largest and most varied in New England. We have these fine coats in twelve different patterns, ranging from the plain heather mixtures to those good looking shadow plaids. Among the plain colors the olive drab army mackinaw ranks first.

Sizes 8 to 10 years. 11.75

Sizes 12 to 18 years. 14.75

And lest you forget, these coats are absolutely all wool and extra heavy weight.

Stylish Sturdy Shoes for Youngsters

"Old Brick" School Shoes

The best shoe for school wear or any other occasion calling for well built serviceable shoes. "Old Brick" shoes for little boys and big boys will stand hard wear and give satisfactory service.

Gun Metal Blucher laced boots for school wear. Every pair Goodyear welt soles which can be repaired with sewed soles.

Little Boys' sizes, 11 to 2. 4.25

Big Boys' sizes, 2½ to 6. 5.25

Unusually Attractive Are the Boys' Furnishings and Hats

There are very smart ties in the new bright colors, such as you would be prone to have him wear.

Outing Polkas, very comfy on cold nights; sizes 4 to 18 yrs. 1.50 and 2.50

Boys' blouses, light and dark, 6 to 18 yrs. 79c, 1.15, 1.50, 2.00

New Christmas Neckwear, all silk, 35c, 50c, 65c, 75c

Boys' khaki color kid gloves, 1 clasp, washable 1.50

Fleece lined grey, mocha gloves. 2.25

Trench Hats—latest combinations and mixtures. 1.00 to 3.50

Plush Hats—large assortment, in browns, blacks and greys, new trimmings. 2.00 up 4.50

Velours Hats. 5.50 to 7.50

SMILE FOR SAKE OF SOLDIERS OVERSEAS

Relatives of Boys In France to Be Filmed on Common
October 30

Have you a relative in France? Do you want him to see your face in moving pictures? Will you help cheer him on to victory by sending him a life-size animated photograph of yourself so that he may see how great you are in him and how confident you are that he will do his bit to bring honor and glory to America?

Then do not fail to appear before the movie camera which will take notes of him showing happy American relatives of gallant soldiers boys from Boston and suburban communities.

If you live in Boston proper, which includes the North, South and West Ends and the Back Bay section as far west as St. Mary's street, you are hereby invited to be filmed on Wednesday afternoon, October 30, at 2 o'clock, at the Parade grounds near the Charles Street Mall of Boston Common.

All relative and "sweetheart" of Boston boys who went across from those sections of the city controlled by Draft Divisions 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8, and who live within the ward limits of Ward 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 are cordially invited to congregate in families on the Common, work of the National Monument and pass before the electric camera commencing at 2 p. m.

BEYOND BOSTON. Through the courtesy of Chairman James B. Rice of the Park and Recreation Department, a large space will be reserved off of which the nearest motor operator from the National Film Service will "grind" off the rolls of film as relatives of the soldiers pass in a steady stream before the shutter.

Superintendent Michael H. Crowley of the Boston police department has promised to have a large squad of patrolmen present to handle the expected throng, at good humor will radiate throughout.

Further facts of him showing relatives of fighters for this oppor-

Declares Treachery of Czarina Led to Kitchener's Death

New York, Oct. 25.—The Czarina had a private wire leading from her apartment in the Winter Palace at Petrograd to Potsdam over which the German government was apprised of the Allied plans so far as they were revealed to Russia, it was declared by Commissioner Henry W. Mapp, head of the Salvation Army in Russia, in the course of an address at the Salmagundi Club.

The Kaiser was fully acquainted with the proposed sailing of Lord Kitchener through the treachery of the Czarina, said Mr. Mapp, who said she wired all details of Kitchener's proposed visit to the German Emperor directly she learned them.

"The Czarina was the great force in Russia," said Commissioner Mapp.

"The Kaiser controlled Russia. The corruption, treachery and intrigue of the Russian court was terrible. The treachery of the former Empress was directly responsible for the death of Lord Kitchener."

soldiers' relatives from other wards and suburbs will be made on Saturday, November 2, Sunday, November 3, and on three days a week during the next six weeks, which follow.

Read the AMERICAN every day for further details and watch for the announcement of your district. All of Boston and certain suburbs will be filmed on successive occasions. Don't miss your turn.

The film, after being finished, will be shown on the screen at the various social centers along the fighting fronts under the direction of the Division of Films of the Committee on Public Information. They have already received the stamp of government approval.

NO COST ENTAILLED. There will be no charge to the relatives of fighters for this oppor-

DRAFT BOARD MAKING GOOD PROGRESS

Work of Classifying Class 1
Men of Sept. 12 Call
Well Under Way

Washington, Oct. 25.—In spite of unavoidable delay in many sections of the country as a result of the influenza epidemic, the work of classifying and examining the Class 1 men of the September 12 draft is making fair progress.

Up to date 867 of all the local boards in the country have reported completion of 80 per cent. of the physical examinations and 477 boards reported completion of 60 per cent. of this work. About 20 per cent. of the examinations phase of the work has been completed by 578 local boards.

Classification records already have been received by the district boards from 141 local boards, according to reports sent to the President War Reliance office here. About 2,610 local boards are 50 per cent. finished with classification work.

Navy and New Hampshire have joined the States certified by General Crowder with having completed 80 per cent. of both classification and examination of the September 12 registrants.

The Kaiser Abducted

Chicago, Oct. 25.—Kaiser Bill has been abducted by a time-traveling machine. The Kaiser, it is said, was seen in the city of Chicago, but he was not seen in the city of Berlin.

Men's relatives are only asked to wear their hats, so that they will look comfortable.

To bring the babies, as that their fathers can see how they are.

"Come-ups" will be made of the babies after their fathers wear to the front.

Remember that our slogan is good cheer, and that this message can only "get across" through your cooperation.

Your sole obligation is to stand behind the man behind the camera.

In case of rain the picture will be made the next day at the same time and place.

NATIONAL SUPPLY CO.
23 Years on Temple Pl.
Men's CLOTHING ON CREDIT Women's Day's Wear
Orders on the Cash Basis
48 TEMPLE PLACE
L. J. KELLY, S. KELLY, Mgrs.
Phone 544. Cable 1000 2nd Fl.

CAN'T SAVE BY BUYING LIQUOR, SAYS OLD MAN

Columbus, O., Oct. 25.—"We are going out of business before the Government puts an additional tax on whiskey. Buy today and save money."

An old man read the above sign in front of one of the most "sacred" saloons in this city and remarked as follows: "How a man can save money by buying liquor at 40¢ per gallon. I have tried it all my life and have lost an awful lot of money."

We Save You $1.25 on every $10.00 of liquor.

Why Pay High Retail Prices on Millinery

You can come to these second floor wholesale saloons and choose from all that is newest and best in up-to-the-minute millinery and save small retail prices. 160 smart model trimmed hats ready for your selection at a saving of $1.25 on each hat.

$2.96 UP

Accounts with Milliners Indicated

A. W. JONES CO.
Manufacturers of Millinery and Hosiery

20 CHAUNCEY ST.
Up One Short Flight to Our Showroom

Wholesale Floor

Directly Opp. Chauncey St. E. Terminal

Have Community Church

Milford Centre, N. H., Oct. 25.—A community church has been started by the citizens of this town by purchasing the Presbyterian, Methodist, Episcopal, Christian and Baptist churches into one.

H. C. L. Triples.

American Oct. 25.—The cost of living has increased 100 in the past year, according to a statement by representatives of the American Red Cross. The cost of living has increased 100 in the past year, according to a statement by representatives of the American Red Cross.

Close Court; Pick Cotton

Memphis, Oct. 25.—Judge Beebe has postponed his October term of court to allow all attached witnesses and all whose attendance would be required to busy themselves in the active battle, where demand for soldiers is extreme.

For Salads For Shortening For Frying

It makes extra stiff, rich mayonnaise and the most piquant French dressings — this sweet delicately flavored oil made from the heart of corn.

You will like it better than olive oil and it costs very little less.

You can shorten with it, fry with it, season with it. You won't need butter nor any other fat once you try Douglas Oil.

Your dealer has Douglas Oil or can get it for you.

No risk in a trial can — satisfaction guaranteed.

DOUGLAS COMPANY, Cedar Rapids, Iowa
Manufacturers of Corn Products
DOUGLAS COMPANY, State Mutual Bldg.,
50 Congress St., Boston, Mass.

Not alone attractiveness of quality features, but attractiveness of price is an added feature.

UMBRELLAS for MEN and WOMEN

Men's and Women's Umbrellas, pure silks and Unions in high grade, fast black covers — with handsome handles. Also Colored Silks, in plain and border effects, blue, green and red — Travelers' Samples.

4.85

(Winter Street—First Floor)

HANDKERCHIEFS Now

Women's Pure Linen Handkerchiefs, 2 and 4 inch, 17¢
Women's Pure Linen Handkerchiefs, 2 and 4 inch, 17¢
Women's Pure Linen Handkerchiefs, 2 and 4 inch, 17¢
Women's Pure Linen Handkerchiefs, 2 and 4 inch, 17¢

Men's Pure Linen Handkerchiefs, 2 and 4 inch, 17¢
Men's Pure Linen Handkerchiefs, 2 and 4 inch, 17¢
Men's Pure Linen Handkerchiefs, 2 and 4 inch, 17¢
Men's Pure Linen Handkerchiefs, 2 and 4 inch, 17¢

(Winter Street—First Floor)

WHATEVER IS WANTED IN FURNISHING GOODS FOR MEN

With Prices Lowered at This Store of Safe Standards for Our 53rd Anniversary Sale Week is Punctuated with Two Days' Specializing in the Needs of Men such as

SHIRTS, UNDERWEAR, ETC.

And—what we are in a position to say regarding the immensity of our stocks, we can say as emphatically about the long list of wonderful values.

To begin with there are—

MEN'S FINE PURE SILK SHIRTS

Styles right—patterns the best—and the quality? Well, 5.00 will not buy better than what is offered in these shirts at 3.45

Next! A lot of

MEN'S PURE SILK SHIRTS

Such fine qualities, and what extraordinary values for 5.95

Now, run down this list of "Specials"—

NEGLEEGE SHIRTS

Men's Laundered Cuff

2.00

2.50 quality 1.65

Shirts out-of-the-ordinary — you'll be agreeably surprised with the remarkable value at this price.

Made from fine woven and printed madras, and every one a "beauty."

MEN'S NEGLEEGE SHIRTS 1.15

See if you can get this totality of goodness in a shirt selling hereabouts for less than 1.50. We doubt it!

MEN'S SOFT CUFF WOVEN MATERIAL NEGLEEGE SHIRTS 1.55

No surrendering to cheaper qualities! No cheapening in workmanship! These are regular 2.00 shirts!

OFFERINGS IN UNDERWEAR

—that compete in interest with some first page news.

Now, your attention, please, to this unusual value

MEN'S HEAVY WEIGHT, PART WOOL UNION SUITS AT 2.65

—the kind you like to put your money into. Take it from us, men, you'll want to stock up on these.

2.65—at this price, prominently displayed in Our Men's Store, only 300 of these suits, and no more to be had.

—Note, too, that every one is a 3.75 quality.

AT 1.45 Men's Heavy Ribbed Balbriggan Shirts and Drawers. Our word for it, these are the best grade you will get for this price for some time to come.

Sample Lines Men's Fine Cotton Pajamas, 1.85 and 2.45

THOSE AT 2.45—so much greater difference in the quality that we think you'll prefer 1.85, you bet!

Men's Heavy Blanket Bathrobes, notched collar, corded edge, these should be much higher priced, but for the Anniversary Sale we have lowered the price to

6.75

FINE SILK FOUR-IN-HANDS 1.00

Really superb scarfs, rich and rare patterns.

65¢

PURE SILK HALF HOSE 35¢

Black and colored. "second" of 75c qualities

3 PAIRS 1.00

GOOD COTTON NOVELTY NECKWEAR 1.15

Good heavy silks, in superb array of designs.

AND 1.65

GOOD COTTON HALF HOSE 3 PAIRS 70¢

black and colored. This is something unusual!

Men's Natural Wool Half Hose—"Seconds" of 1.00 Qualities 59c

(Men's Own Store—Winter Street—First Floor)

THE SHEPARD STORES.

COURTESY THE KEYNOTE OF SHEPARD SERVICE

HERE ARE THE EXTRAORDINARY VALUES Anniversary Sale Bring to You, Sir!

VALUE — is a broad term bounded by many things besides price. — this season, both patriotism and self-interest must take count of VALUE by the measure of SERVICE rendered.

And—on such terms the VALUES this Men's Own Store offers at this sale stand out with impelling interest.

For here are splendidly large assortments of SUITS to render full measure of value

At 23.50 for men and young men—selected from the best sources, where designing and tailoring continue as master-craft, where as rigid care is taken in the selection of fabrics as was taken prior to this Country's entrance into the war.

and 30.50 and 38.50

Suits of Style, in sizes and proportions, and qualities, to square with the confidence men have had these many years in The Shepard Stores.

Shepard "Quality" Suits—direct from our regular stocks—that we cannot hope to duplicate and you cannot hope to buy at these prices—after these stocks are depleted.

There is the double economy of present prices—reductions plus the several dollars per garment more we might have added to our former prices, but didn't!

Men who put quality ahead of everything will be pleased with the values we give at these prices. Consider your clothing needs for the next year.

OVERCOATS Genuinely Good Shepard "Quality" 25.50, 28.50, 34.50

This Anniversary Sale Overcoat offer shows that we have anticipated woolen scarcity and escaped rising costs, all of which has prevented much damage to our regular prices. You may pay a trifle more than past seasons, but you'll get the QUALITY and VALUE which you have been accustomed to get HERE.

OVERCOATS — for dress and business wear. — Single and double-breasted models. — Tailored with all the snap and smartness to give your garment a high-class custom appearance. — Fancy and simple colors.

We've had to fight like fun to get these fine materials—made to precise Shepard manner—you men who demand, must obtain, the VALUE you expect from this store—and here are OVERCOAT VALUES full and far beyond your expectancy for the low prices you pay.

UNSURPASSED VALUES FOR THIS ANNIVERSARY SALE

(Direct Entrance from Winter Street)

A Real Home Brightener
Solid mahogany, cane back and cane seat, rocker or arm chair. Will resist many years of wear. Beautifully polished.
at $13.45
Our Liberal Credit Terms.

SUMMERFELDS
727-735 WASHINGTON ST.

Tip Top Table
This table is of Colonial design and is very practical as a tea table, card table or vase stand. The top turned down enables you to place it in a corner and it occupies little room.
$5.98

Legal Stamp with Every 10c Purchase.

CHRIST CO.

Business Hours 8:30 to 5:30, Saturdays Included

THREATEN JAIL FOR ALLEGED BOODLERS

Women Out to Defeat "Gang Rule" in East Greenwich, R. I.

Providence, Oct. 24.—East Greenwich, the "Monte Carlo" town, where members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union say town matters are discussed around a roulette wheel and where "gang rule" is in full sway, is set to see the storm of the November election and a wave of ending alleged hood rule to all are made.

Town officials are horrified when word of gambling is carried on in the town. "It is the ruin of the town," they say. "It is the ruin of the town," they say. "It is the ruin of the town," they say.

Two years ago the State leaders were alarmed when the town committee refused to place a ticket in the field at election. "It is the ruin of the town," they say. "It is the ruin of the town," they say. "It is the ruin of the town," they say.

Pastor Finds Churches Closed; Serves in Grip Fight

The Rev. William Chandler, pastor of the First Baptist Church, later went to Richmond, Va., to preach, and found all the churches closed. "It is the ruin of the town," they say. "It is the ruin of the town," they say. "It is the ruin of the town," they say.

MUST READ UP ON WAR WHILE SERVING SENTENCE

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 23.—Benjamin J. Read, the late of the Federal House, was sentenced to the State Prison for a term of one year for a crime committed while he was in the service of the United States.

THEY MARRY 12 YEARS AFTER GETTING LICENSE

Rushville, Ind., Oct. 23.—Twenty years ago, when they were only twelve years old, a young man and woman were married in this town. They were married in the year 1898, and they were married in the year 1918.

GIRL STRUCK BY AUTO, ASKS $5,000 DAMAGES

Alfred Turgon of New Bedford has filed a suit in the Superior Court of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for $5,000 damages against the owner of an automobile which struck and injured a young girl in this town.

MINISTER FAILS TO DOFF HAT FOR NATIONAL ANTHEM

Prussian Guard Kicked by Yankee on Penitentiary

PRUSSIAN GUARD KICKED BY YANKEE ON PENITENTIARY

Prussian Guard Kicked by Yankee on Penitentiary

SPECIALS

W. SPINNEY

Here's Every Inducement You Could Reasonably Expect to Gain Your Good Will and Patronage

As, a level-headed clothing buyer, what is it that attracts you to one store in preference to another? Is it the extent of the stock, variety of styles, quality of merchandise, greater value-giving, more painstaking service, surety of satisfaction? Men go out of their way to secure even one of these advantages. Here you get them all, and in greater degree than anywhere else.

The widespread scarcity of fine merchandise while we still have plenty, and the big advance in prices while ours remain nearly stationary, demonstrate the wisdom of the extensive preparations we made to offset these conditions.

We are confident that future events will as completely justify our present policy which is to sell just as low as we can and take our "war profits" solely in the good will of our customers rather than in dollars and cents.

There was never a time when comparison would so clearly reveal this Live Store's supremacy.

Some men, with only a superficial knowledge of fabrics and tailoring, may have found it hard to see, with their own eyes, at the time of purchase, the $3 to $10 price advantage which we have always offered on equal qualities, or the quality advantages we offer at equal prices. But today, when others are asking (for example) $50 for quality that in any way compares with what we give you in these

Kuppenheimer Suits at $35

The difference is so great that it doesn't require much knowledge of clothing to show a man where he can buy to best advantage. This is only one instance out of hundreds. We've always invited comparison. We especially urge it now. We'll both benefit by it.

Strictly All Wool Suits from $20 up Kuppenheimer Suits start at $30

YOUR size and YOUR sleeve length in

Manhattan Shirts

$2.50 to $10

Kennedy's

New England's Largest, Livest, Leading Men's Store

Summer and Hawley Streets

Open Saturday Evenings

Uncle Sam Says: Shop Early

The advent of cold weather intensifies the warmth and attractiveness of

Fall and Winter Coats For Misses and Small Women

Never were coats made in more varied styles than this year—to suit the tastes and personality of every woman. Never were coats made with more solicitude for warmth and wearing qualities than in this practical season. As wool grew scarcer the materials it went into grew more beautiful.

Silvertip or Velour Coat

The collar is of plush, or of the material, whichever you fancy most. There is a wide belt, tailored pockets and large decorative buttons. All the newest shades are represented. $25

Loose Back Coat of Velour

Its large raccoon collar recommends it, of course. Its chief bid for favor, however, is the loose, swinging back, swinging back, and the effect which is fast becoming the favorite of designers and women in general. When, to these good lines, one adds the attractive side tucking, there is little left to be desired—unless it's the fact that every coat is lined through out and warmly interlined. In the most desirable shades $37.50

Luxurious Velour de Laine Coat

The large shawl collar is either nutria or sealette. This coat has the effective and youthful high waistline, with gathered back, and unusual fullness. The belt is very good-looking and fastens with a decorative buckle quite as a matter of course. It is fully lined with beautiful peau de cygne. $75

Hundreds of other beautiful fur-collared models $45 to $150

R.H. White Co.

Krazy Kat

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

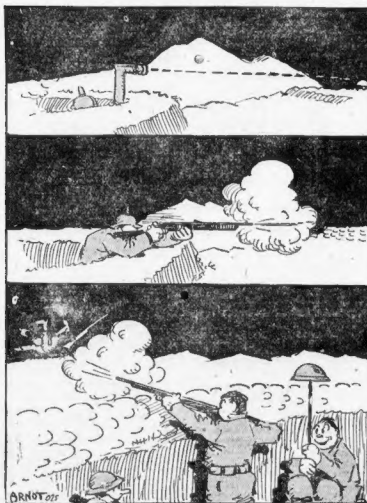

SOLDIER SPEERENS, U. S. A.

Copyright, 1918, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

THAT SQUARES IT

Copyright, 1918, International Feature Service, Inc.

Kabibble Kabaret

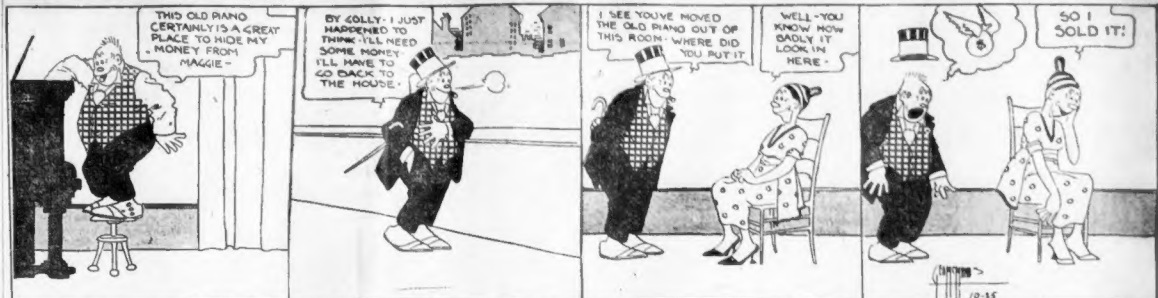

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

DEAR MR. KABIBBLE
WHAT IS YOUR IDEA OF A MODEL HUSBAND?
A HUSBAND WHO COMES HOME IN THE MORNING AND TAKES THE MILK IN LOATH HIM!

BRINGING UP FATHER

Copyright, 1918, International Feature Service, Inc.

By George McManus

BARON BEAN

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

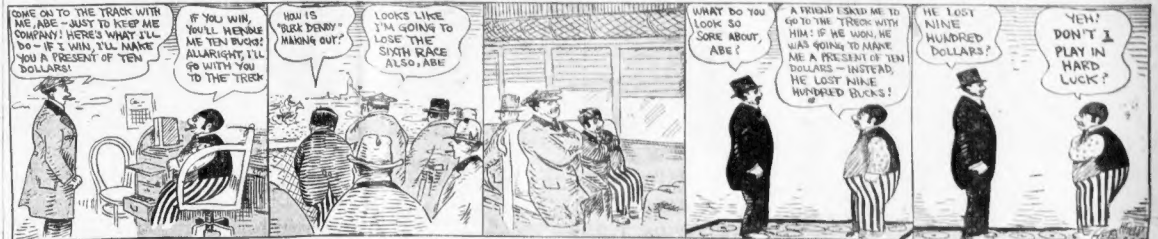

Spoofing the Spooks

ABIE THE AGENT

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

The Other Fellow Didn't Count Much

POLLY AND HER PALS

Copyright, 1918, International Feature Service, Inc. — Registered U. S. Patent Office.

Hiding His Light Under a Vest

US BOYS

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

Eaglebeak Doesn't Need Any Help

OVER HERE

Copyright, 1918, International Feature Service, Inc.

This Sleep Is Going to Cost Pop a Lot of Dough

